

HISTORY OF FMRC CONFERENCES

FMRC conferences bring together academics, regulators, and industry professionals to analyze and discuss topics of current interest in financial markets. Each conference focuses on a specific theme. The 35-year history of conferences is listed.

April 7-8, 1988	The stock market crash of 1987: What have we learned? (1 st annual conference)
April 13-14, 1989	Dewey Daane conference on international financial policy
April 6-7, 1990	Volatility and market structure
April 11-12, 1991	Securities markets transaction costs
April 9-10, 1992	World trading markets
April 15-16, 1993	Risk management (Launch of VIX)
April 8-9, 1994	Global risk
April 6-7, 1995	Financial markets' reform
April 11-12, 1996	Investing internationally
April 10-11, 1997	Ten years since the crash
April 2-3, 1998	Financial markets and the corporation
April 15-16, 1999	Coping with global volatility
April 13-14, 2000	Financial markets, information technology and electronic commerce
April 19-20, 2001	Market quality
April 11-12, 2002	Innovation in finance
April 10-11, 2003	Corporate behavior and financial markets
April 22-23, 2004	Exchange governance and securities market structure
May 19-20, 2005	Conference honoring Hans R. Stoll's contributions to the field of finance
April 20-21, 2006	Conflicts of interest in financial markets
April 12-13, 2007	Developments in financial markets
April 17-18, 2008	Securitization
October 15-16, 2008	35 Years of Black/Scholes and Merton
April 18, 2009	Financial markets and financial policy (Dewey's 90 th)
April 22-23, 2010	Regulatory change in the global financial system
May 5-6, 2011	Implementing regulatory changes in the financial markets
May 3-4, 2012	Then and now – 25 th annual FMRC conference
April 5-6, 2013	Global finance

May 1-2, 2014	New frontiers in finance (In honor of Hans Stoll)
October 9-10, 2014	Private equity & Venture capital
May 14-15, 2015	Options and volatility
September 25-26, 2015	Labor and finance
May 20, 2016	International finance
May 17-18, 2018	Exchange-traded products: Blessing or curse?
October 4-5, 2018	The changing regulatory and technological landscape of market structure (joint with Law School)
2019-2023	COVID-19/Building renovation hiatus
2024	TBA